

Consecrated Ground and the Gettysburg Triangle

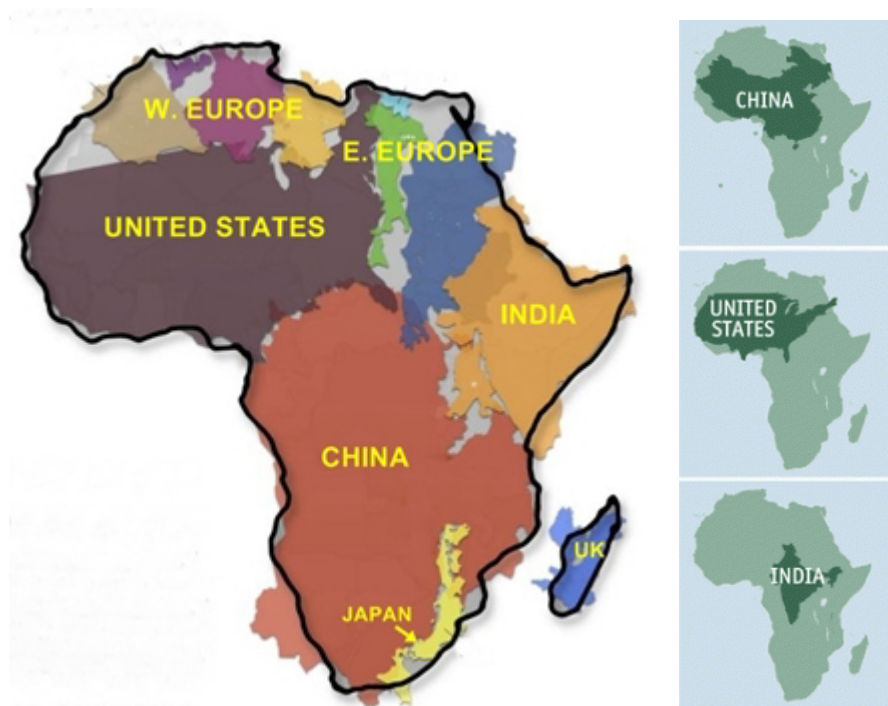

by Jeremy James

There is little awareness today of the importance of obelisks in Freemasonry. These idolatrous objects are not isolated or independent structures but constituent elements in a huge esoteric network that spans the continents.

Even Freemasons themselves – the lower 95% – do not seem to understand that the obelisks erected here and there across the United States are laid out in accordance with a preordained plan. There was nothing haphazard about the way their locations were selected. As we explained in our previous paper (The Continental Obelisk Grid and the Babylonian Elite who Control the United States) these massive stone idols form an elaborate grid or network which has been constructed in accordance with the principles of the Babylonian religion – the core doctrines of which are promulgated via Freemasonry, Theosophy, Kabala, and Rosicrucianism.

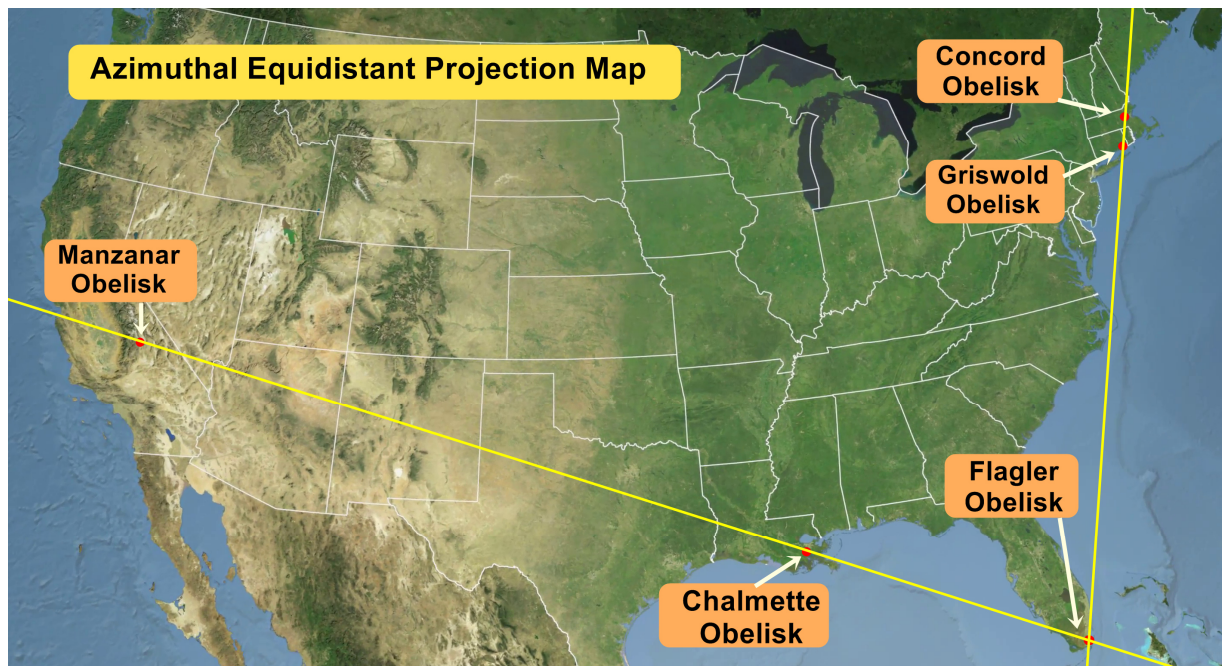

The ingenious but deceitful minds that manufactured the myth of the 'globe earth,' spinning on its axis in the dark depths of empty space, did so for the specific purpose of undermining mankind's trust in the veracity of the Bible, the very Word of God. In this they were largely successful. However, the fiction of a 'globe earth' had another advantage. It allowed the alignment of esoteric structures on the earth's flat surface to be disguised. It also distorted the relative size of countries and continents. Most maps of the world, for example, depict the continent of Africa as a landmass roughly equal in size to the United States and Canada, when in reality it is far bigger. From the maps overleaf we can see that Africa exceeds the landmass of the US, China, India, and Europe combined!

This kind of distortion makes it virtually impossible to detect, by sight, the alignment of places that are geographically far apart. For example, the map below, which is in common usage, locates Chalmette, Louisiana, far above the line connecting Miami and the town of Independence in California:

However, if we compare the actual distances between these three locations we find that the three are in alignment. This is shown on the Azimuthal Equidistant Projection overleaf, which is somewhat closer to the Flat Earth model:

Notice how Chalmette is now on the line connecting the other two locations.

The map above shows two lines each consisting of three major obelisks in true alignment – the calculations are set out in the boxes below. The alignment of the Flagler Obelisk in Miami with the obelisks in Connecticut and Massachusetts would also be obscured on a spherical earth projection.

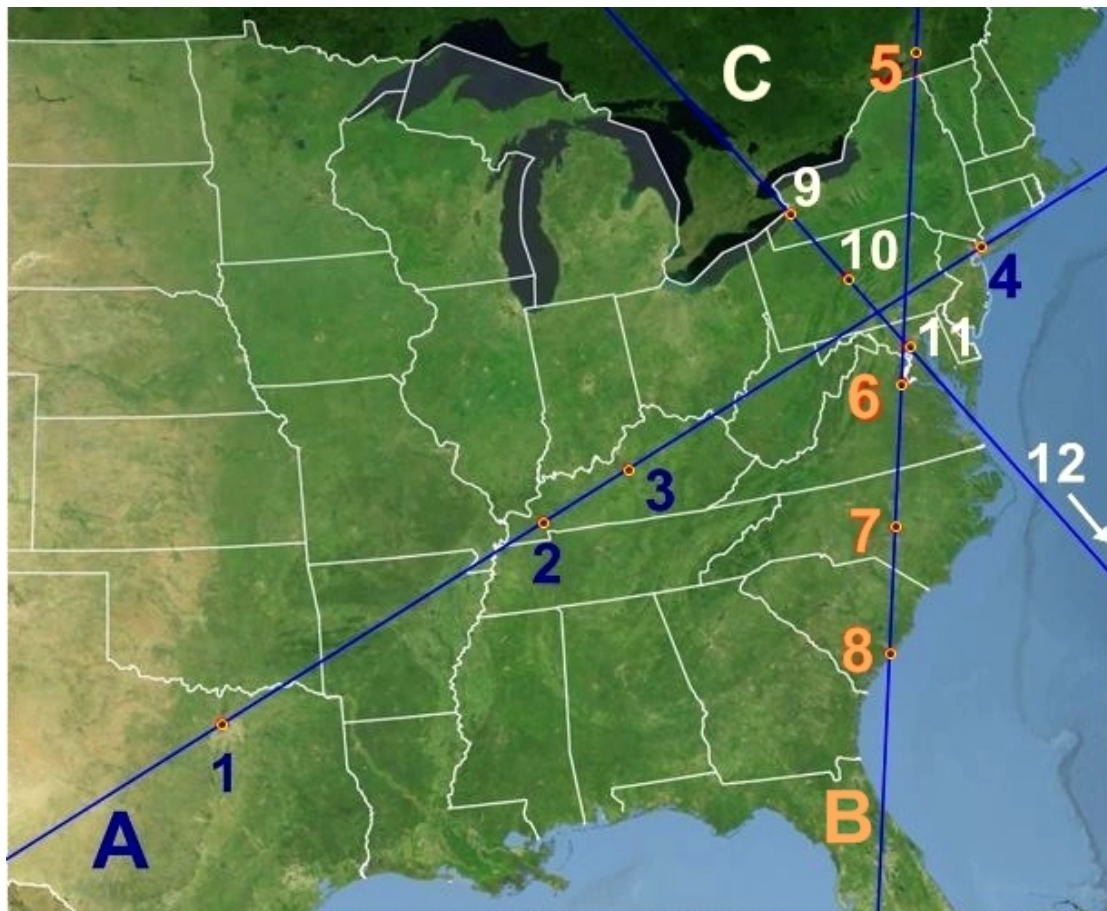

1	Manzanar – Chalmette – Flagler 2,355 miles
a	Manzanar – Chalmette	8,914,200 ft	= 12,433,060
b	Chalmette – Flagler	3,518,860 ft
c	Manzanar – Flagler	12,433,060 ft
	Verdict [a+b=c]	straight line

3	Flagler – Griswold – Concord 1,253 miles
a	Flagler – Griswold	6,169,360 ft	= 6,618,745
b	Griswold – Concord	449,385 ft
c	Flagler – Concord	6,618,745 ft
	Verdict [a+b=c]	straight line

The Gettysburg Triangle

From our analysis of the Continental Obelisk Grid we know that there are over fifty such alignments across the United States comprising obelisks of significant size. If smaller obelisks, generally less than 20ft in height, are taken into account, the number is almost certainly far greater.

Among these fifty or so we have identified three lines with, not three, but four obelisks in alignment. In Babylonian terms, these must have a special significance. If we draw them on a map we find that they define a right-angled triangle over Gettysburg and the surrounding countryside – see map below:

See table overleaf showing the constituent obelisks in each of the 3 lines.
The actual calculations proving the alignments may be found in Appendix A.

Exodus 12:12

"For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment; I am the LORD."

Obelisks in Line A	Obelisks in Line B	Obelisks in Line C
1. Obelisk, Dealey Plaza, Dallas, TX.	5. Pioneers Obelisk, Montreal, Canada.	9. McKinley Monument, Buffalo, NY.
2. Jefferson Davis Monument, Historic Park, KY.	6. Mary Washington Monument, Fredericksburg, VA.	10. Obelisk at University of Pennsylvania, State College, PA.
3. Union Monument, Perryville Battlefield, KY.	7. World War II Memorial, Capitol, Raleigh, NC.	11. Washington Monument, Washington, DC.
4. Cleopatra's Needle, Central Park, New York City, NY.	8. Washington Light Infantry Monument, Charleston, SC.	12. Santo Domingo – see map below.

It may seem incongruous to include obelisks situated in other countries, in this case Canada and the Dominican Republic, but in the Babylonian philosophy Baal owns everything. National boundary lines are irrelevant. As we intimated in our opening remarks, the obelisk grid that extends across North America is probably connected to a worldwide network of obelisks, all erected – largely under British supervision – in honor of Baal.

Few maps reveal this alignment since their curved earth projection distorts to some degree the physical reality.

The 12 obelisks in question are listed below, showing both the year they were erected and their respective heights in feet. The set includes some of the tallest obelisks in the world, as well as an original obelisk used by the priests of Baal/Osiris in ancient Egypt. [Photos of each are shown overleaf.]

	Obelisk	Height (ft)	Year
1	Washington Monument	555	1884
2	Jefferson Davis	351	1924
3	Santo Domingo	137	1937
4	Buffalo	96	1907
5	Central Park	69	Egyptian
6	Fredericksburg	50	1894
7	Charleston	42	1891
8	Montreal	41	1894
9	Raleigh	40	1990
10	State College, PA	33	1896
11	Dallas	25	1940
12	Perryville	18	1928

The lengths of the three lines contributing to the formation of the Gettysburg Triangle are, respectively, 941 miles (Montreal to Charleston), 1376 miles (Dallas to New York), and 1762 miles (Buffalo to Santo Domingo), giving a total of 4079 miles.

The lengths of the 3 sides of the Gettysburg Triangle are, respectively, 277,512ft, 337,772ft, and 435,243ft. This gives an angle of almost exactly 90 degrees. In fact, if we make a modest correction to these figures of plus/minus 800ft, the angle at the Gettysburg 'corner' is precisely 90 degrees (Given the total length of the contributing lines, over four thousand miles, such a correction would seem admissible).

What is the significance of the Gettysburg Triangle?

To understand the significance of the Gettysburg Triangle, we need to consider the importance of the triangle in Freemasonry. Triangles in general have a mystical significance in Masonic philosophy, but right-angled and equilateral triangles are especially revered. As Mackey, the famous Masonic authority, says:

"There is no symbol more important in its signification, more various in its application, or more generally diffused throughout the whole system of Freemasonry, than the triangle." – Albert Mackey, Encyclopedia of Freemasonry

In another work he reveals the particular importance of triangles – the triadic delta – to initiates of the Higher Degrees:

"In the higher degrees of Masonry, the triangle is the most important of all symbols, and most generally assumes the name of the Delta, in allusion to the fourth letter of the Greek alphabet, which is of the same form and bears that appellation." – Albert Mackey, Symbolism of Freemasonry

Albert Pike, another Masonic authority, explains how the triangle is seen as a symbol of deity, albeit the deity of Freemasonry known as The Great Architect:

"...three lines form, by their conjunction, the triangle, or the first figure regularly perfect; and this is why it has served and still serves to characterize The Eternal; Who, infinitely perfect in His nature, is, as Universal Creator, the first Being, and consequently the first Perfection." – Albert Pike, Morals and Dogma

Manly Hall takes this a little further when he says:

"The sacredness of the triad and its symbol – the triangle – is derived from the fact that it is made up of the monad and the duad. The monad is the symbol of the Divine Father and the duad of the Great Mother. The triad being made of these two is therefore androgynous and is symbolic of the fact that God gave birth to His worlds out of Himself, who in His creative aspect is always symbolized by the triangle." – Manly Hall, Secret Teachings of All Ages

This is all Babylonian to the core. The 'Divine Father' and the 'Great Mother' combine and, through their androgynous union, produce the whole of creation.

Finally, Mackey gives the complete picture when he says:

"[The right-angled triangle] was, with the Egyptians, the symbol of universal nature, the base representing Osiris, or the male principle; the perpendicular, Isis, or the female principle; and the hypotenuse, Horus, their son, or the produce of the two principles..." – Albert Mackey, Encyclopedia of Freemasonry

This is Freemasonry in a nutshell, the secret worship of Isis, Osiris and Horus. The Egyptian goddess Isis was known in ancient Babylon as the goddess Semiramis, whose principal symbol was the dove. The Latin for 'dove' is 'columba,' and so Columba or Columbia are simply code-words for the goddess. Washington DC is located in the District of Columbia, the zone dedicated to Isis. The French Masons, who know her as 'Liberty,' presented a gigantic idol in her honor to the city of New York, which was dedicated in 1886. Today she stands with her Illuminati flame upheld, 'guarding' entry to the country that the Elite are using to create a New World Order.

Approximate location of the Gettysburg Triangle in relation to the Gettysburg Campaign.

The Illuminati want all of their most important events to fit the ancient Babylonian pattern, including the special dates and times indicated by astrology. They also like to mark all such occasions with an offering to Isis, such as the corn, wine and oil offerings made by Freemasons. The greatest offering of all – human sacrifice – is used to consecrate events of critical importance.

"The Battle of Gettysburg was fought July 1–3, 1863, in and around the town of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, by Union and Confederate forces during the American Civil War. The battle involved the largest number of casualties of the entire war [nearly 8,000 killed outright] and is often described as the war's turning point." - Wikipedia

The Battle of Gettysburg was such an event. As the Wikipedia article says, it caused the largest number of fatalities during the Civil War – nearly 8,000 killed outright in only three days – and marked the turning point in the war. The fields of Gettysburg were consecrated in the blood of thousands of innocent men, tricked into fighting a war which the Elite themselves had cleverly contrived.

The Civil War was a Planned Event

The Civil War was a planned event. The Illuminati wanted to 'blood' the nation and acquaint her citizens with the reality of war. In many respects it was like the hazing that new recruits receive in the army, where a cynical regime of abuse renders them insensitive to the suffering of others. The victim becomes more willing to carry out orders, without questioning their moral basis. This would be essential in the decades ahead as the US intervened more and more in the affairs of other nations and worked with their European counterparts to bring about a New World Order.

Their strategy certainly got results. For example, when the US invaded the Philippines in 1899 and killed more than 200,000 innocent civilians, the American people hardly noticed. According to Wikipedia, in November 1901 the Manila correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger wrote: "The present war is no bloodless, opera bouffe engagement; our men have been relentless, have killed to exterminate men, women, children, prisoners and captives, active insurgents and suspected people from lads of ten up, the idea prevailing that the Filipino as such was little better than a dog..." The US even herded nearly 300,000 innocent civilians into concentration camps, where thousands died of hunger, maltreatment, and insanitary conditions.

Isaiah 28:15-16

"Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves: Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste."

150 Union Generals give the Masonic 'hidden hand' sign.

- see details in Appendix B -

The Illuminati also wanted to increase the power of central government, to the point where federal authority would never again be seriously contested. They wanted all power – both political and military – concentrated in Washington DC, the district of Columbia. Civil War is the standard Illuminati way of doing this. Fellow Freemasons in the south were likely instructed to press for secession and trick local leaders into believing that all kinds of potential benefits could be had if they declared independence. The military prowess of the south was greatly exaggerated and military aid was promised from abroad. So the farmers of the south attacked the industrialists of the north, not realizing that they had not the slightest hope of victory. The north was vastly more powerful in every way. The French Freemasons were not seriously intending to support the south at all but, by inducing her leaders to lean on empty promises, to draw them into a conflict that could only end in catastrophe.

Lincoln's principal general, McClellan, deliberately allowed the war to drag on, thus convincing the south that it was worth their while to fight to the finish. The north could have dealt a hammer blow to the south on numerous occasions, but held back. The trauma of war had to be prolonged, and as much blood shed as possible. Christians had been tricked into killing fellow Christians, and Americans into killing fellow Americans. This is how the real Enemy makes his way into the soul of a nation.

Suspension of Habeas Corpus

The Illuminati even got the chance to play their trump card, though largely for symbolic purposes. In 1862, on his own authority and without the formal approval of Congress, Lincoln – who was probably a Rosicrucian – suspended the right of habeas corpus across the entire country. The right of habeas corpus is the ultimate human right, under which the individual is presumed to be innocent of any crime until proven guilty in a duly constituted court of law. By suspending this right, the state grants itself the power to arrest and detain anyone for an indefinite period without trial. Victims may even be 'interrogated'. Thus, by suspending the right of habeas corpus across the entire country, and by doing so on his own authority, Lincoln was giving himself absolute power. This is exactly what they intend to do at some point in the future, when America itself will undergo traumatic change as a necessary prelude to the formal implementation of the New World Order.

Finally, when enough pain and suffering had been inflicted, and countless deaths by bloodshed caused on the field of battle, Lincoln sent the psychopath Sherman to annihilate the opposition. The lesson had to be hammered home – Washington rules.

The Masonic generals on both sides made sure the war followed the course dictated by their superiors. Even though many of them probably believed they were fighting for a noble cause, they were simply pawns in a game they didn't understand. They didn't see that the war they were prosecuting had been secretly engineered by the Hidden Hand. Through this awful catastrophe (for the south), a Great Plan was being pursued. Lincoln said as much in his Gettysburg Address:

Lincoln's Gettysburg Address – 19 November, 1863

Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent, a new nation, conceived in Liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battle-field of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field, as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

But, in a larger sense, we can not dedicate – we can not consecrate – we can not hallow – this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us – that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion – that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain – that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom – and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

Notice some key phrases, straight from the Illuminati handbook:

...a new nation, conceived in Liberty... We have come to dedicate a portion of that field... who here gave their lives that that nation might live... The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it... dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced... dedicated to the great task remaining before us... that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom...

The "great task" and "unfinished work", while referring ostensibly to the war, were pointing to the eventual introduction of a New World Order. The field in question is Gettysburg, but in a larger sense it is America itself. The land had been "consecrated" in blood for the "great task" that lay ahead.

CONCLUSION

The Gettysburg configuration is unique. It enfolds the consecrated, blood-soaked soil of the Gettysburg battlefields in a huge right-angled triangle, each line of which is 'powered' by 4 great obelisks. This massive triangle represents the Babylonian Trinity – Isis, Osiris and Horus. It is doubtful whether a similar Babylonian configuration exists anywhere else on earth. After all, it includes both the gargantuan Washington and Jefferson Davis monuments, along with an original Egyptian obelisk, and two of the largest obelisks in the world, at Santo Domingo and Buffalo.

While there are dozens of alignments of three obelisks across the US, we have only found three instances where four are aligned – the three that comprise the Gettysburg Triangle.

We will close by drawing the reader's attention to a fact which never appears in the history books, a fact which ought to make every American question the official account of the Civil War. Of the 645 or so Generals in the Union Army, at least 150 were Freemasons. The photos in Appendix B are undeniable evidence of this. What is more, many of the same Generals posed for other photos in which they did not make the Masonic 'hidden hand' sign. If so, then they were under no compulsion to make the sign. It is therefore reasonable to infer that many of the other Generals were also Freemasons. Indeed, given the audacity shown in these photos, one could fairly question whether there were more than a few token Christians in the rank of General in the Union Army.

The entire conduct of the war is easier to understand if one realizes that Jefferson Davis, the foremost leader of the Confederates, was also a Freemason:

Jefferson Davis and his wife, Varina.

When Christ returns, he will put an end to all of this, the wicked system of Baal worship that permeates all nations of the world. It will truly be "the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall."

Isaiah 30:25

"And there shall be upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall."
